November begins with All Saints Day and ends in Advent, when we anticipate Christ's coming again. So the readings today tell us of the final resurrection and the end time. In the turmoil of hope, fear, and disbelief that these predictions provoke in us, Hebrews sounds a note of confident trust. Christ makes a way for us where there is no way, and we walk it confidently, our hearts and bodies washed in baptismal water, trusting the one who has promised. The more we see the last day approaching, the more important it is to meet together to provoke one another to love.

At the 10:30 service this morning we will be blessing the toques and neckwarmers that have been produced by the Friday morning craft group. These will be donated to the Mission to Seafarers.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK

The Lamplighter - The deadline for any submissions for our next edition is Sunday, Nov. 22. Submissions may be e-mailed to sjcorston@gmail.com or hard copy may be left in the office marked attn. Sharon Corston. Any questions please call Sharon at 355-1549.

A note from the Craft Group - One of our outreach projects this year is knitting toques for the Mission to Seafarers. If you are interested in helping with this project and cannot come to crafts on Friday mornings, there are patterns available at the back of the church. Donations of wool/sayelle for this project as well as for mittens for local schools are always appreciated.

The Anglican Journal, The Algoma and St. John's newsletter The Lamplighter

There are copies of the current issues of these publications at the back of the church. If you have not already received a copy of any of them and would like to have one, please help yourself.
